Free and Low Cost Things to Do in NYC

July 18, 2024 by Pistin Dibble

There is no right way to experience the city. As a New Yorker for 1+ years, I know how hard it is to find your people and get the most out of your time here, while also being conscious of your budget! I've found many low-cost options that fit my budget, and may fit yours!

1. Stay home. Don't leave your house, at all. Make it a game! First one outside loses!
2. Dine and dash! Don't go to a fancy place that might have security. You probably won't get caught.

Best meal I've had in my life. It could have been free though :P

Just kidding I get that they're running a business!

But yeah could have been free.

The broccoli was BANGING!

I got divorced here though :/

That's all for now!
